

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTICE TO THE EIGHTH PART.

THE present Part has been lingering at press for upwards of twelve months, notwithstanding that it has received more anxious and persistent attention than any of its predecessors, which were completed in half the time. The cause has been, that the portion of Lowndes on which this is based, is unusually deficient, and has required a disproportionately large number of additions, besides a full average of corrections. Indeed, the original matter has been more than doubled, as the slightest examination will show. The labour of this extensive revision has been very exacting, and no sale of the book is likely to repay even the cost of my amanuenses, much less the value of my own time; whereas, a simple reprint of the old book, however unsatisfactory in a literary point of view, would have been a remunerative speculation.

They who have taken the trouble to read my prefatory notices to the earlier Parts, will see how much more I am performing than I originally undertook; yet ever and anon I am called upon to do still more. Some requisitionists, overlooking that I limited myself at the outset to the period comprehended by Lowndes, with the intention of including later writers in a Supplement, ask me why I have omitted Dickens, Grote, Bulwer-Lytton, and many other distinguished writers of the present day? Others seem to expect that I should register every book, pamphlet, and broadside, in English literature, as well as foreign translations of them, and also indicate what they have sold for by auction, and where they are to be found in public libraries! A pretty task truly, which, if it could be accomplished, would occupy about fifty folio volumes, and as many amanuenses! Such suggestions do not come from practical bibliographers, but from shallow pretenders, who seek to acquire the reputation of critics by finding fault with what they would be quite incompetent to perform.

Every article of importance in the present Part has received considerable additions, of which the following may be taken as examples :—RITSON, ROCHESTER, ROYAL SOCIETY, SCHILLER, SCOTLAND, SCOTT (Sir Walter), SHAW (Henry), SHELLEY, SHERIDAN, SHIRLEY, SHORT-HAND, SIBBALD, SIDNEY (Sir Philip).

SHAKESPEARE, as a warrantable exception to all ordinary rules, has been elaborated up to an extreme point, and is a main feature in my bibliographical labours, past, present, or to come. I have not only endeavoured to record every printed edition of his works, whether published collectively or separately, but also all the volumes written respecting him, (commonly called 'Shakespeariana,') and all foreign translations. Besides this, I have given new and careful Collations of the first four folios, and of the early editions of the Separate Plays and Poems, with particulars of their whereabouts as far as the most diligent research has enabled me to trace them. This labour alone has occupied all my literary leisure for many months, and nothing but the pleasure of working on so congenial a subject could have stimulated me through the task.

I close this address with the hope that I shall complete the Lowndes Alphabet before the expiration of the present year.

Steevens, 1160, 21. Ordered to be preserved by the licentiate in Don Quixote, and kept as a singular piece. Southey remarks that Munday began Palmerin of England with some care, but soon resigned the task to others less qualified than himself; for certain it is, that at least three-fourths of the book were translated by one who neither understood French or English, nor the story which he was translating.—Lond. 1639, 4to. Palmerin de Inglaterra Libro del muy esforçado Cavallero Palmerin de Inglaterra hijo del Rey don Duados. 1543. At the end Toledo in casa de Fernando de Santa Catherina, 1547. Libro Segundo del muy esforçado Palmira d'Inglaterra, &c. Toledo in casa de Santa Cathalina defuncto, 1548, folio, 2 vols. in the Grenville Collection. Salva, imperfect, 144. Heber, 144. In the prologue of the first volume of this extremely rare Spanish edition will be found thirty-two verses containing the following acrostic, "Louis Hurtado, autor al lector." There is therefore an end of Dr. Southey's ingenious reasonings, attributing this work to Moraes in the Portuguese language, an opinion in which he was confirmed by Antonio and by the editor of the Portuguese edition of 1785. The present Spanish edition, however, of 1547, with the name of its Spanish author, is prior by ten years to that of Moraes, which puts the question to rest. Cervantes, knowing nothing of this Spanish edition, attributed the work, according to Floria de Souza, to John II. of Portugal.

In Ellis's "Original Letters." Ser. iii. vol. ii. p. 208, there is a letter from Stephen Vaughan to Secretary Cromwell, of the date April 13, 1531, shewing the difficulty of obtaining a copy of this work, stating, "I perceive that Palsgrave hath willed Pynson to sell none of them to any other person then to suche as he shall comande to have them, lest his profit by teaching the French tongue might be mynished by the sale of them."

The first attempt at reducing the French tongue to grammatical rules, Dedicated to K. Henry VIII. The author was schoolmaster to the Princess Mary. — Matthew, Archbishop of Canterbury. De Antiquitate Britannicæ Ecclesiæ & Privilegiis Ecclesiæ Cantuariensis, cum Archiepiscopis eiusdem 70. An. Dom. 1572, folio.

It is said only twenty-two copies were printed, (but in all probability there were fifty,) at the office of John Day. Bindley, pt. ii. 2573, with the rare portrait by Hogenberg, and the arms of the archbishops (both generally wanting), 451. 8s. Sir M. M. Sykes, pt. ii. 607, with the three leaves which were added after the Archbishop's death, 381. 12s. Dent, pt. ii. 985, with the portrait of Parker by Hogenberg and the arms of the archbishops, morocco, 401. A copy in the Grenville Collection. A copy formerly Sir R. Twysden's, not seen by Mr. Martin, wanting portrait, &c., sold in pt. vi. of Mr. Heber's collection, see details, pt. vi. 2887, for 71. Collation. — Title, one leaf; Latin preface by Archbishop Parker, four leaves; 'De Vetustate Britannicæ Ecclesiæ testimonia,' pp. 1-14, 15 a, 15 b, 16 a, 16 b, 16 c, 16 d, 17-45; a leaf, containing the arms of the bishops follows; then two tables, the former consisting of one leaf, the latter of two leaves; the history commencing 'Augustinus,' pp. 1-4, 4 a to 4 d, 5-122, 122 a to 122 b, 123-294, 294 a, 294 b, 295-424; index, 7 leaves. Then follows a second title-page, 'Catalogus Cancellariorum,' &c. with the arms of the colleges at the back, one leaf, after which is another leaf containing a wood-cut of the public schools, at the back of which is a wood-cut of Queen Elizabeth about to be crowned by Justice and Mercy, with Fortitude and Prudence beneath, below which is a person, probably the archbishop, preaching to the court; then the catalogue, 16 pages: 'Episcopi ex Academia Cantabrigiensi,' &c. one leaf; 'Hinc omnia monumenta,' &c. pp. 17 to 34, the latter with the catch words 'M. Bedel,' then follows a single leaf commencing 'Ac præter' and concluding 'deinceps nominantur,' 'De Scholarum Collegiorumque in Academia Cantabrigiensi Patronia atque fundatoribus,' one leaf; list of books given by the archbishop, two leaves, or 4 pages, all marked 26; 'Scholarum publicarum extractio,' two leaves; 'Hospitorum,' &c. situs ac mutatio, pp. 31-48; errata, one leaf. The latter pagination will be found at the foot of the page. The above collation was made from a copy in the British Museum, formerly belonging to Queen Elizabeth, and curiously bound in green velvet, with figures of animals, plants, &c. embroidered in silver. The two title-pages and the leaf containing the arms of the bishoprics are on vellum, and emblazoned in gold and colours; the volume is ruled throughout; the arms and the capital letters are likewise emblazoned or coloured. In the same collection is another copy, 'Ex dono Mathæi Cantuariensis Archiepiscopi' to Lord Arundell, whose name appears on page 1 of the history. It varies from the other copy in some particulars. There are no leaves printed on vellum; the arms of the bishoprics, &c., and some only of the capital letters are illuminated; pages 41 and 43 are erroneously substituted for 47 and 48; the wood-cut of the public schools, the two leaves containing the list of books given by the archbishop, and the leaf containing the errata, are wanting. Dr. Dibdin, in his improved edition of Ames' Typographical Antiquities, gives the collation of two other copies, one formerly Mr. Bindley's, the other in the collection of the Earl Spencer, which vary from those in the British Museum. The rare portrait of the archbishop by Hogenberg, measuring 4½ inches by 3½, and printed in the centre of the leaf, wanting in the British Museum copies, in Mr. Bindley's copy preceded nineteen pages, numbered at the bottom, devoted to the life of Matthew Parker himself. His life, which was not printed till 1574, occurs at the end of Mr. Grenville's copy. "Scarcely any two copies entirely agree in their contents."—Bibliotheca Grenvilliana.

'The true author of this life (which is a translation from the Latin found in very few Copies of the London edition, and wholly omitted in the Hanover edition) was John Josselin. It is a very great rarity. The marginal notes were done by some Puritan. I have seen two or three other copies of this little book, but without the table prefix'd to it.'—MS. Note by Haerne. According to Ant. & Wood, 'It was translated by a thoro-paced separatist, with very vile notes added in the margin, endeavouring thereby to bring an odium on the archbishop, and make him ridiculous for erecting his monument while he lived.' Gough, 2622, 21. 16a. Bindley, pt. ii. 1181, with the table and a portrait of Parker by Berg, & c. Hogenberg, inserted. Sir M. M. Sykes, pt. i. 607, title wanting, 11. 18a. Dedication to Philip and Marie and work, pp. 1-359. Index 4 leaves (often wanting), the last page having imprint and licence, n.d. In the preface, Archbishop Parker says, "That this worke is put forth from a certayne writing being in his custodie, gathered together and written in the Raigne of Kyng Philip and Queene Marie, which said Booke was written by a learned man of that tyme, who shortly after dyed." Strype, in his Life of the Archbishop (p. 504), says that "Parker added the History of Priestes Marriages, from the conquest to Edward the VIth's reign, and that it has several Quotations in the Anglo-Saxon tongue, upon which account it is valuable." Some alteration appears to have been made in the work, at pp. 228-242, by cancelling 240.1 (KKitt) and afterwards making the last paragraph of p. 229 read with the first paragraph of p. 242. BLACK LETTER. Bindley, pt. iii. 1166, 81. 6a. The other works of this prelate are now in little estimation. He was subservient to the designs of James II. His ecclesiastical polity gave rise to a controversy with Andrew Marvell. See D'ISRAELI'S Quarrels of Authors, vol. ii. p. 174. MARVELL, Andrew.

PARLIAMENT, HISTORY AND DEBATES.

ALMON, DEBRET, CHANDLER, WOODFALL'S AND STOCKDALE'S SERIES.

The volumes marked with an asterisk are usually adopted as the consecutive series. But it will be seen that there were rival publications during some part of the period, and as these are by different reporters it may be advisable in a very complete Parliamentary library to add them.

The Pentateuch, by Leon Soesmans, corrected and translated by David Levi. Lond. 1785-99, 8vo. 5 vols. 2l. 2s. The original Hebrew is printed on one side of the page, with the vowel points, &c., and the common English translation is on the other. PENTATEUCH, The, translated by William Tindal. Emprinted at Malborow in the Land of Hesse, by me Hans Luft, in the yere of our Lorde M.CCCC.XXX. the xvii. daye of Januarii, 12mo.

Of Tindal's translations of the Scriptures Dr. Geddes remarks, 'few first translations will be found equal to it.' Collation.—Title, 'The fyrst boke of Moses called Genesis,' within a wood-cut border, used for the next three Books; on the reverse, 'W. T. to the reader,' occupying 7 pages; a prologue, 8 pages; 'The fyrst Boke,' &c. fol. i.—lxxvi. after which is a table, 7 pages, on the last of which is the colophon, as given above. Exodus, fol. i.—lxxvi. including title, before which is a 'prologue' of eight leaves. Leviticus, fol. i.—lii. with title, but not including 'prologue,' eight leaves. Numbers, fol. i.—lxvii. with title, but not including 'prologue,' ten leaves. Deuteronomy, fol. i.—lxiii. and a 'prologue,' four leaves. At the end of the volume is an explanation of some Hebrew words. Genesis and Numbers are printed in German Gothic, and it is nearly certain that they were published before the others, generally thirty-one lines in a page; the others, which probably were printed at Hamburgh, in Roman, except the letter W, with twenty-eight lines in the page. There are some marginal notes throughout, but no wood-cuts except in Exodus. Sanders, in 1818, imperfect, 3s. 4s. White Knights, 2996, some leaves supplied from another edition, 1s. 16s. The finest and only perfect copy known of this edition, is that now in the Grenville collection (formerly Mr. Wilkinson's). Other copies, but imperfect, are known. That in Ston College, presented by the Rev. John Lewis, the first English Bible historian, wants the Book of Deuteronomy, and has all the marginal notes cut away, as ordered by an Act of Parliament in 1542. The copy, which was Dr. Gifford's, now in the Baptist Museum, Bristol, wants the Book of Genesis and the last leaf. In the Bodleian is a copy of Genesis, large and fine. Mr. Heber's copy (formerly Tutet's, sold in 1798), then wanting twelve leaves, produced in 1834—see pt. ii. lot 545—35s.; afterwards perfected by Mr. Grenville (three leaves only being in manuscript by Harris, viz., folios 43, 44, 45), but parted with on acquiring the fine copy now in that collection. This copy (Mr. Heber's) was resold, Gardner, July, 1854, 189s.; another, at Bishop Daly's sale, Sotheby, June 26, 1853, 155s. The preface and the prologues to the several Books will be found in the volume entitled Tyndale's Doctrinal Treatises, 1848, 8vo. See Parker Society, APPENDIX. A specimen of the translation (taken from Genesis) is given in Cotton's List, and copious notices will be found in Lewis' History of the English Translations of the Bible.

Genesis begins on the reverse of the last page of the preface, and the next leaf is page i. It ends on fol. lxxxi. b. At the end is 'The end of the first boke of Moses called Genesis,' printed in Roman Letter. The other four books are as in the edition of 1530. There are a few marginal notes. The Hon. and Rev. Lord Aston's copy, at Evans's, 22nd July, 1845, 121l.

The leaves of the volume are not numbered, but the signatures run in eights, A—Y, Aa—Vu. A full page contains thirty-three lines, the prologues, heads of chapters, marginal notes, and references are printed in a smaller letter. Utterson, March, 1857, title slightly mended, and last leaf a facsimile, 138s. 10s. Imprinted at London by Jhon Daye, &c. 1551. This colophon is on a separate leaf at the end of the volume.

The hand of Milton may be often discovered in this publication of his elder nephew. Among many criticisms in this volume, which must be attributed to Milton, those on Shakespeare and Marlowe are eminently conspicuous. In the preface are more manifest marks of Milton's hand than in the book itself. The imprint is dated Sep. 14, 1674. The date in the title-page in most copies is battered

This strange and confused work is in 3 vols. The first is without date, place, or printer's name, it being stated at the foot of the title that the booksellers had been intimidated to stifle the work, and she was obliged to publish it herself. It came out in numbers, and each bears her signature. The title of the second volume has on it 'printed for the Author, 1748.' At the end of it there is the Justification promised in No. 4, dated 1749. In Vol. 3, between pages 180 and 181, is an address to the Reader, complaining of the combination of the Booksellers and Printers of the Daily Papers; the latter having refused, it is said, to insert advertisements.

This translation is, say the Quarterly Reviewers, 'sometimes tame, sometimes abrupt, and sometimes rough,' though, upon the whole, faithful and spirited. PINTO, Ferdinand Mendez. The Voyages and Adventures of Ferdinand Mendez Pinto, during his Travels, for the Space of one and twenty Years, in the Kingdoms of Ethiopia, China, Tartaria, Cauchinchina, Calaminham, Siam, Pegu, Japan, and a great Part of the East-Indies. Done into English by H(enry) C(ogan), Gent. Lond. 1668, folio.—Third edition, 1692, folio.

This work contains an 'apologetical defence' of Pinto, consisting of references to every Portuguese work, and many Latin ones, confirmatory of those circumstances mentioned by him, which were likely to excite amazement or doubt in his readers. And well this was needed, for poor Pinto has been stigmatized by Cervantes as the 'Prince of Liars,' and by another (but constantly misquoted as Shakespeare) as 'a Liar of the first magnitude.' Modern travel, however, has done much to recover for Pinto and other early travellers their long-forgotten reputation. Steevens, 1908, 10s. Hibbert, 6519, 7s. See Retrospect. With Notes and Illustrations by Warton, new edition. Lond. 1823, 8vo. 9 vols. Drury, 3353, 6f.

The notes to these editions, which necessarily include the greater part of Warton's celebrated essay, are highly interesting and instructive. But the editor was severely and illiberally attacked for inserting one or two indecent pieces (January and May, &c.), which had hitherto been excluded from his collected works.

Various Editions.

THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER and Administration of the Sacraments, &c. Imprinted at London the vii day of MARCH, in the third year (on fol. cxxiv) of Edward VI. Londini in Officina Richardi GRAFTON, 1549, folio.

There were at least seven editions or variations of this FIRST BOOK OF KING EDWARD THE SIXTH, in the year 1549, which differ not only in the colophons but in the body of the text. These variations have been pointed out in Dr. Cardwell's Two Books of Common Prayer temp. Edward VI., and by Mr. Lathbury, in his History of Convocations, and History of the Common Prayer.

Evidence is given in Mr. Lathbury's History of Convocations, p. 130, as to this being the First Edition, and that it was used in the London churches on the 21st of April, 1549, being Whitsunday.

Collation.—MENSE MARTII, 1549, title composed of architectural columns at the head; the king sitting in parliament at the foot; the printer's rebus on the reverse. WIGORNIE IN OFFICINA IOANNIS OSWENI, 1549, folio. A copy of this edition, at Thomas Rawlinson's sale in 1737, was purchased by Lord Oxford for ten pounds. A copy in the British Museum, 'imprinted the xix day of July,' contains 122 leaves, (A—O 4, in sixes, P—X 4, in sixes), not including title, &c. 10 leaves. The pagination of the folios is very incorrect.

THE BOOKS OF COMMON PRAYER, &c. Lond. Richardus Graftonus, typographus Regius excudebat, Mense Augusti, Anno Domini 1553, folio. This is the Second Book of Edward the Sixth. Sir J. and H. Savile, Dec. 1680, 12l. This edition contains fol. 128, not including title, &c. 16 leaves. Annexed is 'The Forme and Maner of making and consecrating Bishoppes, Priestes and Deacons,' 17 fol. after which is a leaf 'This booke is truly and diligently imprinted. The prices thereof,' &c. It is evident from a comparison that Grafton printed two editions in 1553. In this 'second book,' as it is called, of King Edward, there were, says Bp. Tomline, many additions and corrections.

Collation.—Title, with the king sitting in parliament; the printer's rebus at the foot, as in the edition of 1549; Contents at back, 1 leaf. Preface of Ceremonies, 3 leaves. The Table and Kalendar, Almanacks for xix years, 1552—1570, 18 leaves. Act for uniformity, 2 leaves. In These Bookes of 1549 and 1552 have been collated with that of Owen of 1549, and the differences pointed out in the volume edited by Mr. Ketley, for the Parker Society. See APPENDIX.

Variations exist in the different copies of the first impressions of Grafton and Whitchurch, of the date 1552. After the editions were printed, 'a Declaration concerning Kneeling at the Lord's Supper was ordered to be added. In some copies this Declaration stands as the fourth, and in others as the fifth rubric, at the end of the Communion service; whilst in some it is found inserted on a separate leaf; some copies having already been dispersed without it.

Some copies have pieces of paper pasted over Jugge and Cawood's name, to intimate their being sold by Grafton. They have been collated with that of 1566, and printed by the Parker Society. See APPENDIX.

No allusion has hitherto been made to an edition in quarto of this date (1604), and by the royal printer. A copy with the Psalms by Sternhold and Hopkins, printed by J. Windet, 1598, bound in one vol., occurred in the Libraries of Sir Henry and John Savile, at Sotheby's, Dec. 1860, and sold for 120l. A fine copy is in the British Museum.

A copy of it with the alterations in MS., probably copied from Abp. Laud, having been originally found by W. Pryme, in his apartments in the Tower. About a century and a half since, this volume was in the possession of the Rev. — Watson of Hingham, in Norfolk, and by him presented to the Library of the city of Norwich; but about 1766, it had gone into the possession of the Rev. Sotheby's, April, 1857, 6l., with K. James' Psalms. The Psalms of King James, printed in London, 1636, are usually added, and are necessary to complete the book. This volume ends in general with the word 'Certaine,' it being originally intended to append 'Certaine Prayers;' but that leaf was cancelled in some copies, and finishes properly. LAMOR PAPER. Sotheby's, Feb. 23, 1861, 12l. A copy (wanting the Psalms) is in Trinity College Library, Dublin. In the British Museum is a copy with the first draught of the work in MS. See King Charles' Declaration concerning the Twmulls in Scotland, 1639, p. 415. Leaf H b 3 of the Psalms was cancelled in the early copies, owing to the printer having omitted nearly three lines of Psalm 106, on the reverse of that leaf. The imperfection occurs, we believe, in all the large paper copies. Reprinted in Pickering's Series of Liturgies, and in Hall's Reliquiae Liturgicæ.

PRAYERS, PRIVATE FORMS, COLLECTIONS, &c.

PRAYERS.—'Thiese prayers before wreton ben enprited bi the comaundements of the moste hie and vertuous pryncesse our liege lady Elizabeth, by the grace of God Quene of Englonde and of France, and also of the right high and most noble pryncesse Margarete moder vnto our soverayn lorde the kyng. ¶ By their most humble subget and servaut, William Caxton.' Sm. 4to. 22 leaves.

Collation.—Sig. a, b, eight leaves each; and c, six leaves. The reverse of the first leaf has a wood engraving of the Crucifixion. Each page is surrounded by a woodcut border. The type is the same as that used by Caxton for the Virgil of 1490. At the beginning of the volume are the prayers called the 'Fifteen O's,' with others in English; the remaining prayers are in Latin. On the last page of which is the Colophon, as above.

This unique and recently discovered book differs in style from any other production from Caxton's press, inasmuch as each page is printed within narrow borders of animals, fruits, &c.; no date is given with the Colophon, but as the Lady Elizabeth (of York) was not united to Henry (of Lancaster), afterwards Henry VII., until 1486, and the date of Caxton's demise being 1491, this interesting volume must have issued from the press between those years. The book has been recently added to the treasures of the British Museum. In the small catalogue issued in 1860, it is there called 'The fifteen O's in English,' but why, is doubtful—the book being noticed by Dr. Thomas Fuller, as being THE FIRST BOOK OF PRAYERS tending to forward the Reformation.—Also by Ames, though placed among books printed by Wynkyn de Worde; for his conjectural account of it, read Ames, by Herbert, vol. i. p. 117; to his account Herbert or Dibdin have added nothing.

PRAYERS.—Thyse forsayd prayers as the XV O's in Englyshe and the other folowyng ben emprynted by the commendementys of the moost hye and virtuous pryncesse our lyge lady Elizabeth, by the grace of God quene of england and of france, and also of the ryght hye and moost noble pryncesse Margarete, moder to our sonerayn lord the kyng. Lond. 1575, 8vo. This Primer contains two prayers for the Dead; and its general character and arrangements are different from the others. Of this edition there are two copies in the Bodleian. They have been regarded as different editions. The one has no title, the other no colophon. The title to the one has the date of 1566; the colophon to the other that of 1575. The real date of both copies is that of the colophon, 1575, and the date in the title of the one copy is merely that of some other book, for which the woodcut border had been used in 1566. Such variations between the title and the colophon in these times are very common. See Lathbury's Hist. Com. Prayer, p. 67.

Numerous other editions of Sternhold and Hopkins' version of the Psalms are mentioned in Dr. Cotton's List of Editions of the Bible and Parts thereof. The modern editions of Sternhold's version have suffered considerable alteration. The language is modernized without being improved, and the translation varied without approaching nearer to the original. Soon after the appearance of the Psalms by Brady and Tate, in 1696, this version was altered into the form and language into which it is printed to this day. Observations upon the metrical Versions of the Psalms have been published by the Rev. H. J. Todd. London. 1832, 8vo.

The Grenville set of the first four volumes are quite uncut, and have the three folio editions of the Pilgrimage added to them, making 7 vols., and the frontispiece, also the leaf for cancelled pages 65, 6, in the first part of vol. i., on which is impressed 'Hondius, his Map of the World,' in lieu of the map usually found there, entitled, 'Designatio Orbis Terrarum,' which is repeated at page 115. A copy of the proper map, which is on a spherical projection, but with Latin names (instead of English), is given on page 39 of volume 5, entitled 'Typus Orbis Terrarum,' no other copy of which is known; this map is noticed in list of maps in the former ten books, near the close of the page.

This scarce work is comprised in 5 vols., the first two parts extending to 4 vols. Each part contains Ten Books, the pages running on through either two of the vols. PURSITS, The, of Literature, a satirical Poem, in four Dialogues, with Notes. The 14th Edition, with the Citations translated, and with a complete Index. Lond. 1808, 8vo.

This satirical publication created a great sensation and considerable controversy. The author is now confidently stated to have been T. J. Mathias. The first edition appeared in 1794-7, 8vo. 4 pts. in 1 vol. In the different editions there were variations, omissions, &c., &c. Copies of the edition printed in 1812 in 4to. and folio, for the purpose of illustration, a pursuit highly deprecated by the author in his Poem. See MATTHIAS, T. S.

Coleridge, in 'The Friend,' vol. 2, p. 12, (ed. 1818), alludes to this work as 'the most vapid of satires become the object of keen public interest purely from the number of cotemporary characters named in the patchwork notes (which possess, however, the comparative merit of being more poetical than the text), and because, to increase the stimulus, the author has sagaciously kept his own name for whispers and conjectures." See Gent. Mag. N.S. vol. 16, p. 121, for a long article on this book.

There is an elaborate article on Sir Walter Raleigh and his works in the Edinb. Rev. vol. lxxi. p. 1, where it is remarked that this Oxford edition, in respect to the Miscellaneous Works, does not in any very material degree surpass that of Birch, published in 1751. That although augmented with the pieces omitted by him, and one or two others not before printed, it is equally wanting in critical inquiry and literary illustration, and liable to the same censure of blending what is spurious with what is genuine. In one respect the Oxford editors are said to

With a portrait of Milton, etched by Richardson the Father. De Quincey, the English optum ester, says that Richardson asserted that this portrait of Milton was the only one acknowledged by Milton's last surviving daughter to be a strong likeness of her father. De Quincey adds that it is nearly a perfect likeness of Wordsworth the Poet. See Tait's Edinb. Mag. vol. 6, p. 9. According to Bp. Newton, there are strange inequalities in Richardson's notes, often better sense than grammar or English; he sometimes hits the true meaning of the author surprisingly, and explains it properly. FERRANDINO, by the author of Rinaldo Rinaldini, a continuation of that famous romance. Translated from the German by Henry G. Bohn. Lond. W. Oxberry (afterwards H. Colburn), 1813, 12mo. 3 vols. 10s. 6d. This, my first literary adventure, was undertaken at the instance of Mr. Oxberry, printer as well as comedian, who agreed to give me £50 for the translation, which, to a lad of fifteen was a temptation. He being then in difficulties, sold the edition (500) to Mr. Colburn, who put his own name on the title-page, and subscribed the whole of it to the trade in one day. George Scane, eldest son of the architect, and at that time prompter at Drury Lane Theatre, promised to be responsible for the poetry, but never touched a line of it, so that it is for the most part a mere literal rendering of the German, and some in the second volume, relying on him, is altogether omitted.

RITSON, Joseph. Poetical and other Publications.

Sotheby's, March, 1860, 30 vols. post Svo. morocco, 28l. 10s.

Of this writer the Quarterly Reviewers observe: 'Ritson cannot be named without respect for his industry, and pity for the unfortunate irritability which placed him throughout his life in a state of bitter and unintermitted warfare—with beef-steaks and revelation;—Pinkerton and Snorro;—with his best friends and half the letters in the alphabet. But although his outrages may provoke a smile, he has ably pointed out the weaker parts of the Arabian and Gothic systems, as Mr. Dunlop (in his History of Fiction) calls them, of Percy and Warton.'

The following arrangement is not chronological, the BALLAD SERIES, for which Ritson is chiefly famed, being placed first, and what forms the usual set being distinguished by capitals. The Miscellanies follow at end, beginning on page 2100.

No other complete set of the five parts is known. Maurice, the Welsh antiquary, states the book to have been printed at Milan, but we doubt this.

At the sale of that gentleman's library, in 1845, they were secured for the British Museum for 536l. Five hundred copies printed by authority of the Commissioners of the Public Records at an expense of 30,258l. 18s. 4d. Prædestined Thief; or a Dialogue between a Calvinistic Preacher and a Thief condemned to the Gallows. Translated by the Rev. B. Nichols. Lond. 1814, post 8vo. 3s.

'The Fur Prædestinatus (says Dr. Parr) was republished and translated in consequence of the execution of a Calvinist at Northampton, in 1818. He denied the fact at the gallows. He had been encouraged in presumption and self-delusion by a Calvinist teacher. The Calvinists in Northamptonshire took up his cause, and attacked the Judge and Jury. Their attack was repelled by the testimony of the offender's attorney, who lived at Wellingsborough, and who, in justice to the laws of his country, published the prisoner's private confession made to him in Northampton gaol. One Huffer White, a notorious offender, was hanged at the same time, but did not deny his own guilt.' — Bibliotheca Parriana, p. 604.

Christianismi Restitutio. Totius Ecclesie Apostolicae est ad sua limina vocatio, in integrum Restituta Cognitio Dei, Fidelis Christi, &c. Vien. Allob. 1553, 8vo.

This original edition of Servetus' celebrated work was suppressed with such singular exactness that only three copies are supposed to exist, one of which was in the La Valliere collection, and sold for 4120 francs. A facsimile was published in 1791 under the former date; and this is now almost as rare as the original, as is in some sort attested by Chalmers, who, in his Life of Servetus, informs us that he could not see the book, and got his account of the famous passage on the circulation of the blood (p. 169) at third hand. A quarto edition, of which only 252 pages were printed, was afterwards undertaken by the distinguished Dr. Mead, who designed printing only one copy, but proceeded no further than to the end of the four books De Trinitate. The Doctor's intention, however, of printing a single copy cannot have been strictly fulfilled, as, besides one in the La Valliere collection, which sold for 1700 francs, there was a copy in Mr. John Bohn's Catalogue of 1820, priced 3*l.* 13*s.* 6*d.*

SHAKESPEARE, William. Works.

First Edition. MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES & TRAGEDIES. PUBLISHED ACCORDING TO THE TRUE ORIGINALL COPIES. Lond. Printed by Isaac Iaggard and Edward Blount, 1623, folio. Published at 11. The first edition contains 36 plays, being the usual number, with the exception of Pericles, which was first added to the third edition. Of these 36 plays there had been no previous editions of 17; and of four (Merry Wives, Henry V. and Henry VI. parts 2 and 3), there had been no authentic edition. See Retrospective Rev. N. S. vol. i. pp. 91-96, where the following quotation from Horne Tooke's Diversions of Purley is also found: "The first edition is the only one, in my opinion, worth regarding, and it is much to be wished, that an edition of Shakespeare were given literatim according to the first folio, for by the presumptuous license of the dwarfish commentators, who are for ever cutting him down to their own size, we risk the loss of Shakespeare's genuine text, which that folio assuredly contains." Turner,

Esq., measures 13½ by 8½. Another, in the possession of Robert Holford, Esq., quite as large, and extremely fine, is said to have cost him 250*l.*, and George Daniel, Esq., has a very fine one (formerly Daniel Moore's) said to be even larger. The late Bp. Butler had a copy containing a proof leaf of page 278 of Hamlet, and several variations described in Malone's Shakespeare, vol. xxi.; but the title, portrait, and verses were facsimile, and Cymbeline of the second edition.

Collation of the First Edition.—Title, on which is the portrait of Shakespeare, by Martin Droeshout, opposite is a leaf containing verses, 10 lines 'To the Reader,' signed B. I. (for Ben Jonson), and printed thus:

To the Reader.

This Figure, that thou here seest put,
It was for gentle Shakespeare cut;
Wherein the Grauer had a strife
vvith Nature, to out-doo the life:
O, could he but haue drawne his vvit
As well in brasse, as he hath hit
His face; the Print vvould then surpass
All, that vvvas ener vvrit in brasse.
But, since he cannot, Reader, looke
Not on his Picture, but his Booke.

B. I.

The variations between this first edition of the verses and the second, are seen in the fourth and fifth lines, where the vv is small in the first, and large in the second edition. The third and fourth editions have several words in italics, which sufficiently distinguish them.

Dedication 'to William Earle of Pembroke, &c.' and 'Phillip Earle of Montgomery, &c.' signed 'Iohn Heminge and Henry Condell,' two pages on one leaf; (In the bottom line of first page the word like is in this first edition, while same is substituted in the second). 'To the great Variety of Readers,' signed John Heminge and Henrie Condell: one leaf, the reverse page blank; 'To the memory of my beloved the Author, Mr. William Shakespeare,' 2 pages of verses, signed Ben. Jonson, on one leaf. 'Vpon the Lines and Life of the Famous Scenicke Poet, Master William Shakespeare,' signed Hvgh Holland, one leaf, the reverse page blank; 'To the Memorie of the deceased Authour, Maister W. Shakespeare,' 22 lines, signed L. Digges, and 'To the Memorie of M. W. Shakespeare,' 8 lines, signed I. M., both on one leaf, the reverse page blank; 'The Workes of William Shakespeare, containing all his Comedies, Histories and Tragedies: Truly set forth according to their first Originall,' followed by 'The Names of the Principall Actors in all these Playes,' one leaf, the reverse page blank; 'A Catalogue of the seuerall Comedies, Histories, and Tragedies contained in this Volume, one leaf, the reverse page blank. This first edition contains references to the pages of the volume, which are omitted in the second. (It is curious that in this catalogue of contents 'Troilus and Cressida' is not mentioned, although contained in the volume.) After these 9 preliminary leaves follow the plays, paged as here indicated.—The Tempest, pp. 1–19; The Two Gentlemen of Verona, pp. 20–38; (the running titles of pp. 37, 38 are wrongly printed 'The Merry Wines of Windsor'); The Merry Wines of Windsor, pp. 39–60 (pp. 50 and 59 are misprinted 56 and 51); Measure for Measure, pp. 61–84; The Comedie of Errors, pp. 85–100 (p. 86 is misprinted 85); Much adoe about Nothing, pp. 101–121; Loves Labour lost, pp. 122–144; A Midsummer Nights Dreame, pp. 145–162 (pp. 163 and 161 are misprinted 151, 163); The Merchant of Venice, pp. 163–184 (pp. 164, 165 are misprinted 162, 163, and Mr. Amyot had a copy in which page 166 was printed 160); As you Like it, pp. 185–207 (p. 189 is misprinted 187); The Taming of the Shrew, pp. 208–229 (p. 214 in some copies is misprinted 212); All's Well that Ends Well, pp. 230–254 (p. 237 in some copies is misprinted 233, p. 249, 250 are misprinted 251, 252); Twelfth Night, Or what you will, pp. 255–275 (p. 265 is misprinted 273); page 276 is blank; The Winters Tale, pp. 277–303; page 304 is blank. Longmans had a copy in which, at the top of page 333, were the words "and hell gnaw his bones," instead of Roderigo's speech); The Tragedie of Anthonie and Cleopatra, pp. 340—368; The Tragedie of Cymbeline, pp. 369—399 (pp. 379, 399 are misprinted 389 and 993). The signatures in the volume run thus: A, containing title and introductory matter, 8 leaves; the Tempest to the Winters Tale, A to Cc 2, in sizes (V is in some copies misprinted Vv); King John to Troilus and Cressida, a to g, in sizes, (a 3 is misprinted A a 3), g g, 8 leaves, h to x, and y, y y, in sizes, y y y, one leaf, (m 3 is misprinted 13, x 3 is not marked); Coriolanus to Cymbeline, a a to f f, in sizes (b b 2 is misprinted B b 2); g g has eight leaves (five of which are marked g g, g g 2, G g g 2, g g 3), h h, h k to v v, x, y y to b b b, in sizes (n n and n n 2 are misprinted N n and N n 2, o o is misprinted O o, o o 2 has no signature, t t 2 is misprinted t t 3, y y 2 and y y 3 are misprinted y 2 and y 3). At the end of the volume is 'Printed at the Charges of W. Jagard, Ed. Blount, I. Smithweeke, and W. Aspley, 1623.'

THE PORTRAIT BY DROESHOUT served for the first four editions. The genuine state, as it occurs in the first three editions, is distinguishable from subsequent impressions by the shading on the left of the forehead (as it stands before you), which is expressed by single lines carving inwards from left to right without any crossing whatever, while in the repaired state, as it occurs in the fourth edition, the lines are strongly crossed, and bend outwards. Besides this, the hair is crossed in the repaired state, while in the original it is in single lines.

A copy of this first edition of Shakespeare, formerly in the possession of Messrs. Arch, of Cornhill, bore the date of 1622, and another of the same date (formerly Mr. Baker's, and now in the possession of Mr. Lenox of New York) has in addition, two cancelled leaves in the play of 'As you like it,' sheet K; but, as regards the date, Mr. Lenox, in his own privately printed catalogue, throws some doubt on its integrity. He says, "The title-page with the date 1622 is inlaid at the bottom below the imprint: if by this means the last figure has been tampered with, the alteration is very successfully concealed."

REPRINT OF THE FIRST EDITION, 1807, folio, published at 5l. 5s. Hibbert, 8783, 1l. 11s. Rhodes, 2699, 1l. 14s. Siccattall, 1868, russia, 2l. 12s. 6d. A SECOND REPRINT OF THE FIRST EDITION is now in the course of publication (1862) by Mr. Lionel Booth. This is a facsimile as to matter, but differs in size, being a broad 8vo. (or rather small 4to.) instead of folio, price 1l. 11s. 6d. There will also be an edition in imperial 8vo. and a few copies will be printed in folio, size of the original, two of them on vellum. Like the original, it is divided into 3 parts, viz. 1. Comedies; 2. Histories; 3. Tragedies, which are intended to form one volume. The first part, containing the Comedies, with a photographic facsimile of the original portrait by Droeshout, has already been issued, price 10s. 6d. Those Plays which appeared singly before the first collective edition, are also printed separately, and interleaved for the purpose of annotation, at 5s. each play.

FACSIMILE OF THE FIRST EDITION.—An exact facsimile of the first folio, produced by the Photo-zincographic process at Her Majesty's Ordnance Survey Office, under the direction of Sir Henry James, at the instigation of Howard Staunton, Esq., is now in progress. It will be published by subscription at 10l. or less. Mr. E. W. Ashbee is also engaged in producing a facsimile by tracing and the lithographic process.

Dedication to 'William Earle of Pembroke, &c.' and 'Philip Earle of Montgomery, &c.' one leaf; (in the bottom line of the first page the word came is substituted for the word like of the first edition.) 'To the — Readers,' one leaf; 'Upon the Effigies of'—and 'An Epitaph on—W. Shakespeare,' (by John Milton, but unsigned), one leaf [the verses on this leaf are not in the 1st edition]; two poems to the memory of Shakespeare, signed L. Digges and J. M., one leaf; 'The Names of the Principal Actors in all these Playes,' one leaf; poems, signed Ben Jonson, I. M. S. and Hugh Holland, with a Catalogue of all the Comedies, &c. in all 8 leaves; the Tempest to the Winters Tale, pp. 1—303 (pp. 46, 56, 153, 194, 249, 250, 265 are misprinted 64, 80, 151, 494, 251, 252, 273, and pages 276 and 304 are blank); King John to Henry IV. part 2, pp. 1—100 (pp. 47 and 48 are missing, and pp. 49, 89, 90 are misprinted 45, 91, 92, but in some copies p. 49 is correct); then a leaf containing Epilogue and the Actors Names; Henry V. to Henry VIII., pp. 68 to 232 (pp. 94, 95, 164, 209 are misprinted 49, 56, 194, 120); Troilus and Cressida to Cymbeline, pp. 1 to 168, 269 to 419 (pp. 96, 154, 296, 257, 341, 342, 351, 352, 355, 389 are misprinted 67, 124, 186, 187, 143, 144, 151, 152, 335, 399). SHAKESPEARE, Wm.—continued.

a to y, in sizes; (13, m, m 2, are misprinted h 3, M, m 3.) Troilus and Cressida to Cymbeline, a a to d d d 4, in sizes (c c is erroneously printed bb, b h is misused). In a copy of this edition formerly belonging to Dr. Mead, then to Askew, afterwards to George Stevens, and at his sale purchased for K. George III., is the writing of K. Charles I. in these words, 'Dum Spiro Spero, C.R.;' and that of Sir Thomas Herbert, Groom of the Bedchamber to K. Charles I., 'ex dono serenissimi Regis Car. servo suo humiliter. T. Herbert.' It has also the hand-writing of Ben Jonson and of George III. This copy must ever be regarded as of great national curiosity, not only from its former possessors, but also from the circumstance of its being the identical copy referred to by Milton in his Iconoclastes, where he says, "I shall not instance an abstruse writer, wherein the King might be less conversant, but one whom we well know was the closest companion of these his solitudes, William Shakespeare." This interesting volume, although in the catalogue of King George the Fourth's magnificent donation to the British Museum, is not in that repository; but remains with some other works in the Royal Collection at Windsor.

Third Edition. MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES, AND TRAGEDIES. PUBLISHED ACCORDING TO THE TRUE ORIGINAL COPIES. The third Impression. And unto this Impression is added seven Plays, never before printed in folio, viz.: Pericles Prince of Tyre. The London Prodigall. The History of Thomas Ld. Cromwell. Sir John Oldcastle Lord Cobham. The Puritan Widow. A Yorkshire Tragedy. The Tragedy of Locrine. Lond. Printed for P. C. 1664, fol. (Some copies, dated 1663, do not contain these additional plays, see next page.) 'This edition is said to be very rare, the greater part of the copies having been destroyed at the fire of London.' (This statement has very fairly been doubted.) Of the seven additional plays Pericles is the only one retained in later editions, all the others being deemed spurious. A similar copy, but the verses inlaid, and wanting 5 leaves, Sotheby's, Aug. 1857, 26l. 10s. A copy, formerly Dr. Farmer's, and now in Mr. Miller's library at Britwell, Bucks, has both titles; the one dated 1664 in its usual state, that of 1663 with a blank space for portrait, and Ben Jonson's verses in large type opposite. It measures 12½ by 8½ inches. Miss Currier, Aug. 1863, date 1664, in the original calf binding, 12½ by 8½ inches, 43l. 10s.

Collation.—Title, one leaf, opposite which is the portrait of Shakespeare by Martin Droeshout, with Ben Jonson's verses underneath:—

B. J.

There are several variations between the third and fourth editions of these verses, but the principal is, that Shakespeare is spelt with the final s in the third, and without it in the fourth edition.

The Introductory matter is similar to that

SHAKESPEARE, Wm.—continued. in the second edition, but somewhat differently arranged, and printed in a much larger type, without any blank pages, in all 8 leaves; Tempest to Cymbeline, pp. 1—877; Pericles, pp. 1—20; London Prodigal to Locrine, pp. 1—100. Errors in the pagination of this volume, some of which do not occur in all copies, from which circumstance it is evident that several were corrected during the time the volume was passing through the press.—Among those we have tested are the following, but we are aware there are many more. Page 39 is misprinted 38; pp. 106, 109, 190, 196 are misprinted 56, 111, 119, 194 (but in some copies pp. 109 and 190 are correct); pp. 201, 203, 223 are misprinted 103, 109, 123; pp. 276 and 304 are blank; p. 373 is misprinted 374; pp. 428, 438 are misprinted 423, 428; p. 478 is in some copies paged on the wrong side, in some on the proper side; pp. 560 to 568 are repeated; pp. 576, 579 are misprinted 566, 569; p. 608 is missing; pp. 619, 650, 651, 659 are misprinted 617, 649, 650, 657, (in some copies pp. 657 and 658 are repeated, and pp. 655 and 656 are missed); p. 660 is misprinted 658, in some copies 646, in others 660; pp. 661, 662 are misprinted 656, 660; p. 668 is misprinted 655, in some copies 661; pp. 664, 665, 666 are misprinted 662, 663, 664; pp. 714, 715 are repeated; pp. 779, 798 are misprinted 757, 759; pp. 856, 861, 868 are misprinted 859, 861, 866; pp. 873, 875, 876, 877 are misprinted 873, 879, 880, 881, (in some copies 877 is correct). Pericles, pp. 1—20, is correct. London Prodigal, Locrine, pp. 12, 13, 18 are misprinted 4, 5, 16; in other copies the first 16 pages are correct; pp. 27, 30 are misprinted 30, 27, (in some copies these two pages are correct); p. 36 is misprinted 41, and vice versa, and both are paged on the wrong side, and the head lines are wrong; pp. 49, 50, 51, 52 are misprinted 50, 51, 53, 53. The signatures of this edition run thus:—a (including portrait and title), 4 leaves, b, six leaves, A to A a, in sixes, B b, 8 leaves, C c to D d d d, in sixes, E e e e, 4 leaves. Pericles, a, six leaves, b, 4 leaves. The London Prodigal, Locrine, &c., &c., &c., &c., &c., 4 leaves each, then ¶ A and ¶ B, six leaves each, ¶ C to ¶ F, 4 leaves each, and ¶ G, 6 leaves. ¶ B 2 is misprinted ¶ B 2.

THIS THIRD EDITION WAS FIRST ISSUED IN 1663, WITH THE FOLLOWING TITLE-PAGE: 'Mr. William Shakespeare's Comedies, Histories and Tragedies. Published according to the true Originall Copies. THE THIRD IMPRESSION. Lond. Printed for Philip Chetwinde, 1663.' Copies with this date do not contain the seven spurious plays, and in some a space is left in the title-page for the portrait; but in a few copies the portrait is engraved on the title-page, and the verses by Ben Jonson in large type on a leaf opposite. A copy of this date, having the portrait on the title, is in the British Museum; and another, with both titles of date 1663, one with the portrait, the other without, is in the possession of Mr. Lennox, of New York. It measures 18½ by 8½ inches. The Capell copy has both titles, and also the large letter verses, therefore 10 preliminary leaves.

Fourth Edition. MR. WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE'S COMEDIES, HISTORIES, AND TRAGEDIES, PUBLISHED ACCORDING TO THE TRUE ORIGINAL COPIES. UNTO WHICH IS ADDED, SEVEN PLAYS, NEVER BEFORE PRINTED IN FOLIO: VIZ. PERICLES, PRINCE OF TYRE. THE LONDON PRODIGAL. THE HISTORY OF THOMAS LORD CROMWELL. SIR JOHN OLDCASTLE LORD COBHAM. THE PURITAN WIDOW. A YORKSHIRE TRAGEDY. THE TRAGEDY OF LOCURNE. (The original portrait was used for this edition, after having been retouched; it here occupies the upper part of a leaf preceding the title, having the metrical lines beneath it.) Introductory matter similar to that in the second edition, 6

SHAKESPEARE, Wm.—continued. leaves; Tempest to Winter's Tale, pp. 1 to 372, after which is a leaf containing 'The Names of the Actors.' Modern Editions, Arranged, as far as possible, both critically and chronologically. To facilitate reference, an Index is given at end of article, page 2270.

The Works of William Shakespeare, revised and corrected, with an Account of his Life and Writings, by NICHOLAS ROWE: to which are added his Poems; with critical Remarks on the Plays, &c. (by Charles Gildon). Lond. Tonson, 1709–10, 8vo. 7 vols. With cuts. The first small edition and the first with plates. Twenty years had been allowed to elapse since the publication of the fourth folio, before popular opinion encouraged any London publisher to venture on a new or portable edition. Rowe unfortunately adopted the fourth and worst of the folio editions for his text, and corrected but few of its errors. His biography, however, is the most authentic we have. North, pt. ii. 1638, 6 vols. (wanting Poems), 11. 1s. Garrick, 2272, 7 vols. 3l. 10s. Steevens, 1817, 6 vols. 11. 5s. LARGE PAPER, 6 vols. Isaac Reed, 11. 2s. Stowe, 8s. 6d.

—Second edition, Lond. 1714, 12mo. 9 vols. with plates. Subjoined to vol. ix., which contains the Poems, are 'Remarks on the Plays of Shakespeare,' by Charles Gildon. Garrick, 9 vols. 3l. 10s.

The Works of William Shakespeare, collated and corrected by the former Editions, by ALEXANDER POPE. Lond. Tonson, 1735 (some of the volumes dated 1725), 4to. 6 vols. Prefixed is a portrait of Shakespeare by Vertue. Seven hundred and fifty copies printed at 6l. 6s. each. Steevens, 1818, 2l. 8s. Garrick, 2266, 11. 5s. Sotheby's, August, 1857, 11. 8s. To these six volumes may be added as a seventh, a volume, printed in 1728, which contains 'Venus and Adonis, Tarcuin and Lucrece and Shakespear's Miscellany Poems; to which is prefix'd, an Essay on the Art, Rise and Progress of the Stage in Greece, Rome, and England, and a Glossary of the old Words us'd in these Works. The whole revis'd and corrected, with a Preface, by Dr. Sewall.' Pope is said to have been deficient in the industry of collation, and to have indulged too much in fanciful alterations. His edition did not satisfy the great expectations raised of it, and Theobald, who followed him with less ability but more industry, was justly preferred, although he too has ventured upon many innovations.

—Lond. Tonson, 1738, 12mo. 10 vols. (Pope's 2nd edition.) This edition is said to contain additional notes and corrections. According to Boaden, the portrait prefixed as Shakespeare is that of King James. Roxburghe, 3790, 14s. Steevens, 1819, 11. 1s.

Plays, with a Glossary. (Pope's edition.) Lond. Knapton, 1731, 18mo. 9 vols. with portrait.

Plays. (Pope's edition 9) Lond. Tonson, 1735, 12mo. 8 vols. with cuts. A ninth volume contains the seven spurious plays. Sabine, 847, 11. 7s. 846, 2l. 15s. A copy, with MS. notes by Dr. John Hoadly, is in the Bodleian Library.

—Glasgow, by Foulis, 1766, 18mo. 8 vols. in 16. (Pope's edition.) White Knights, 3846, 2l. 10s.

—Birmingham, by BASKERVILLE, printed and sold by Robert Martin, 1768, 8vo. 9 vols. (Pope's edition.) This edition was printed with Baskerville's types, at the suggestion of Mr. Garrick, and sold at Stratford during the Jubilee. Sabine, 851, morocco, 3l. 4s. Garrick, 2266, rusia, 7l. 10s.

The Works of William Shakespeare, collated with the oldest Copies, and corrected, with Notes explanatory and critical by LEWIS THEOBALD. Lond. Tonson, 1733, 8vo. 7 vols. portrait and plates. An edition of considerable merit, notwithstanding the abuse of it by Pope and Warburton. The plates are considered curious, as shewing the costume of the time in the dressing of the characters. Sabine, 846, 11. 7s. Garrick, 2268, 11. 8s. Sotheby's in 1834, 11. 18s. Steevens, 1820, blue turkey, 2l. 18s. LARGE PAPER royal 8vo. Askew, 413—41. 5s. Williams 1606, Frederick Prince of Wales copy in old morocco, 17l. Heber, pt. 1. with

M.S. notes by Edward Walpole, Roberts, and Styan Thirby, 191. 10s. This copy is now in the Bodleian library.

—Second edition. Lond. 1740, 12mo. 8 vols. with cuts by Gravelot. Gough, 4101, 11. 6s. Stretzell, 1315, 11. 6s. Steevens, 1821, 11. 9s. Willett, 2234, 21. 6s. Sotheby's, 1851, with M.S. Notes by Gray the Poet, 121. 10s. (now in the possession of Mr. Halliwell).

—Lond. 1753, 12mo. 8 vols. This is the second edition of Theobald's Shakespear, with a new title-page.

—Lond. 1757, Theobald's edition, 8vo. 8 vols. with cuts by Gravelot. Dent, pt. II. 494. 31. 13s.

—Lond. 1763, Theobald's edition, 12mo. 8 vols. with cuts.

—Lond. 1767, Theobald's edition, 12mo. 8 vols. Evans, 1833, 11. 5s.

—Lond. 1773, Theobald's edition, 12mo. 12 vols. Halliwell, 1863.

—Lond. 1773, Theobald's edition, 12mo. 8 vols. cuts. North, pt. II. 1635, 11. 15s. Pickering, 1854, 19s.

—Lond. n. d. Theobald's edition, 12mo. 12 vols. (1777?)

It appears (by reference to Mr. Tonson's books) that Theobald received 6621. 10s. as his share of profits on his various editions, of which in all no fewer than 12,990 copies were printed. No other editor had gained so much. Rowe received only 361. 10s.; Pope, 2171; Warburton, 5601; Dr. Johnson, 4901; and Capell, 8001.

Shakespeare's Plays, revised and corrected by the former Editions, with a Glossary, edited by Sir THOMAS HAMMER; and various readings. Oxford, at the theatre, 1744-46, 4to. 6 vols. with plates by Gravelot, after Hayman's designs. Steevens, 1823, morocco, 21. 1s. 6d. Roxburghe, 3791, 31. 15s. Marquis of Townshend, 2836, 41. 1s. Willett, 2151, 51. 12s. 6d. Edwards, 139, mor. 61. 16s. 6d. Drury, 4015, mor. 31. 5s. Roscoe, 1349, 101. 15s. LARGE PAPER! This edition, though founded on Pope's, and wilder even in conjectural criticism, rose to the value of 101. 10s. before it was reprinted in 1770-71, while Pope's six quartos were at the same period sold off at Tonson's sale for 16s. per copy.

Lond. 1790, crown 8vo, 10 vols. in 1l. Malone has always been accredited as a very painstaking and faithful, though not brilliant editor; nevertheless, Dr. Symmons, a recent biographer of Shakespeare, says of him, "Neither the indulged fancy of Pope, nor the fondness for innovation in Hamper, nor the arrogant and headlong self-confidence of Warburton, has inflicted such cruel wounds on the text of Shakespeare as the assuming dulness of Malone. Barbarism and broken rhythm dog him at the heels wherever he treads." Steevens, 1337, 4l. 8s. 1838, 4l. 18s. Marquis of Townshend, 2910, 6l. 16s. 6d. North, pt. Copies are in the British Museum, Capell's Collection, Bodleian, and Devonshire Library. Reprinted by Stevens in 1766, and collated with three others, viz. one printed for Thomas Heyes in 1600, another for Laurence Heyes in 1637, and the third for William Leake, in 1652.

This edition, printed by Roberts, is by some supposed to be that entered in the Stationers' books, July 22, 1598; and the following one, to be that entered by Heyes, Oct. 23, 1600; but this is against the opinion of good judges, and is not unlikely to be incorrect. Roberts married Heyes' daughter, and was not in business on his own account till after Heyes ceased to publish. Mr. Knight says "Heyes' edition is not identical with that of Roberts, but the differences are not many."

TAMING OF A SHREW.—The first edition, as now printed, is in the folio Shakespeare, 1623.

This play was preceded by one having the title—A pleasant conceited Historie, called the Taming of a Shrew. As it was sundry Times acted by the Right Honorable the Earle of Pembroke his Servants. Printed at London by Peter Short, and are to be sold by Cuthbert Burbie, at his shop at the Royall Exchange, 1594, 4to. Inglis' Old Plays, 109, supposed unique, 21f. Resold, Heber, pt. iv. 2024, 94f.; bought for the Duke of Devonshire.

This edition is two years earlier than any hitherto noticed. It is anonymous, and has been supposed to be the play used by Shakespeare as the foundation of his 'Taming of the Shrew.' There is no good reason why it should not be considered as the first idea of his play, as the difference between the two is little more than that between the recently discovered 'Hamlet,' and the more perfect editions afterwards printed; and also between the first edition of the 'Merry Wives of Windsor,' 1602, and that in the folio, 1623. The variations in the names of the characters between the present edition and that in the folio of 1623, will not militate against this supposition, as it was not an unfrequent practice among the Dramatick authors of the time. Ben Jonson changed the names of the Dramatis Personæ of his 'Every Man in his Humour,' as will be seen by comparing the 4th edition of 1601 and the folio 1616. In the Hamlet of 1603, Polonius is called Corambis throughout; and it is well known also, that Sir John Falstaff originally bore the name of Sir John Oldcastle. Mr. Malone assigns the year 1594 as the date of the composition of the 'Taming of the Shrew,' and when the present play was republished in 1607, it had the name of Shakespeare as the author on the title-page. In whatever light it may be considered, whether as the Play remodelled by Shakespeare, or as the first draught of his Comedy, it is unquestionably of the highest literary interest and curiosity in a Shakespearean Library."—Note in Mr. Heber's Catalogue, pt. iv. p. 251.

Mr. Halliwell, however, in his Dictionary of Old English Plays, p. 241, says, 'Shakespeare has made very slight use of it in the composition of his drama on the same subject.'—Mr. Stevens, who had only seen the reprint in 1607, observes, 'There is scarce a line of this the same with the present play, yet the Plot and Scenery scarce differ at all from it.'

Whereunto is annexed, the Banishment of Tarquin: Or, the Reward of Lust. By J. Quarles. London, Printed by J. G. for John Stafford, in George-yard near Fleet-bridge, and Will. Gilbertson, at the Bible in Giltspur-street, 1655, 16mo. 'The Fates decree, that 'tis a mighty wrong,
To Women Kinde, to have more Greife, then Tongue.'

in Capell's Collection, and no other is known. It is bound up with the Venus and Adonis of 1620, and an early note at the end of the volume informs us that though a corner of one of the leaves (C 1. in Venus and Adonis) is damaged, it cost the owner three-halfpence! One would like now to give 100l. for it; but even this is disproportionate to its cost at compound interest at the rate of 5 per cent., which for three-halfpence since 1620, would be 9985. 14s. 10d.

This rare volume includes three poems, viz.: As it fell upon a day, If music and sweet Poetry agree, and Whilst as fickle fortune smiled, which had by some been erroneously attributed to Richard Barnfield, because they first appeared in his 'Encomion of Lady Pecunia,' 1598; but the researches of Mr. Payne Collier have now firmly established them as Shakespeare's. See Athenaeum, May 17th, and Notes and Queries, July 5, 1856.

The Passionate Pilgrime. Second edition. This must have been printed sometime between the first edition in 1599 and the third in 1612, but no copy has ever been discovered by bibliographers, notwithstanding the most diligent search.

The Passionate Pilgrime. Or Certaine Amorous Sonnets, betwene Venus and Adonis, newly corrected and augmented. By W. Shakespeare. The third Edition. Whereunto is newly added two Love-Epistles, the first from Paris to Helen, and Hellen's answers backe againe to Paris. Printed by W. Iaggard. 1612, 16mo. Sixty-two leaves. A copy is in the Bodleian Library. This title-page having been cancelled, another was printed, differing in no respect, excepting that Shakespeare's name is omitted. (The Love Epistles are by Heywood: see the postscript to his Apology for Actors, Lond. 1612).

Ireland Forgeries and Controversy.

Miscellaneous Papers and Legal Instruments under the Hand and Seal of William Shakespeare: including the Tragedy of King Lear, and a small Fragment of Hamlet, from the original MSS. in the Possession of Samuel Ireland, of Norfolk Street. With facsimiles, &c. Lond. 1795, (but Dec. 24, 1795), imp. fol. Originally pub. at 4l. 4s. Field, 543, 1l. Sabine, 1277, 1l. 1s. Roxburghe, Suppl. 723, 1l. 18s. Bindley, pt. 1. 4l. Second edition, 1795, 8vo. "The premature exposure of this literary forgery stopped the publication of this second edition, and it was not until Sept. 1814, that a few copies were disposed of by Messrs. Lackington, Harding and Co. At that time every remaining leaf of the folio was exterminated! In the whole, about 230 copies were wasted."—Gentleman's Magazine for May, 1836. In another account we are told that "the copper plates, letter-press, &c., in short, every vestige of the above folio work fell into the possession of Miss Jane Ireland, youngest sister of the fabricator, who was so anxious to witness the complete annihilation of the same, that although strenuously applied to by Mr. Mavor, then partner with Mr. Lackington, in order to possess a few copies of the folio, she would not consent. At the period in question, therefore, every copper-plate was defaced, and sold for waste metal, and every sheet of the publication torn up in Miss Ireland's presence, and disposed of in a similar manner. From this statement it naturally results, that only 122 copies are extant, being those furnished to the subscribers, whose names are affixed to the folio volume, added to which, the usual numbers were remitted to the Universities, &c.; and about half-a-dozen presented by Mr. Samuel Ireland to particular friends, making a total of 128 copies, which are all that remain to commemorate that most celebrated imposture. This volume, which was usually knocked down in the sale rooms for 1l. 10s. or 1l. 15s., is now rising in value, and there can be little doubt but in a few years it will become an object of great rarity, from the causes above mentioned." The Internal Dr. Parr was among the first to inspect the Ireland fabrications, and is said to have been so completely taken in, as to depart himself with the utmost enthusiasm respecting them. But the following note, written inside his copy of the book, denies the assertion. "I am almost ashamed to insert this worthless and infamously trickish book. It is said to include the tragedy of King Lear, and a fragment of Hamlet. Ireland told a lie when he imputed to me the words which Joseph Warton used the very morning I called on Ireland, and was inclined to admit the possibility of genuineness in his papers. In my subsequent conversation, I told him my change of opinion. But I thought it not worth while to dispute in print, with a detected impostor.—S. P." See BIBLIOTHECA PARRIANA, p. 532.

THE ORIGINAL FABRICATIONS were purchased by Mr. Dent for 300l., at the sale of whose library, in 1827, they produced 46l. 4s. The following is the description given of them in Dent's Catalogue. "Miscellaneous Papers and Legal Instruments, purporting to be under the hand and seal of Wm. Shakespeare, including the Tragedy of King Lear, a fragment of Hamlet, the Dramas of Vortigern and Rowena; Articles of Agreement between W. Shakespeare, John Lowin, and Richard Condell; Lease between Michael Fraser and Elizabeth his wife; Letters to Queen Elizabeth, Lord Southampton, Anne Hathaway, and Richard Cowley, with answers to the two last mentioned Epistles; Deed of Gift to Ireland, Portrait of Shakespeare, &c. Bound in 3 vols. folio, russia. The Legal Instruments and Lock of Hair said to have been sent to Anne Hathaway, being in green morocco cases."

Proposals for the publication of the MSS. appeared in 1795, 8vo. and the work was published 24th Dec. in the same year, although dated 1795.

German Translations.

SHAKESPEARE'S THEATRALISCHE WERKE Aus dem Englischen übersezt von C. M. WIELAND. Zurich, Orell, Füssli and Co. 1769-66, 8vo. 6 vols. This is the first translation of Shakespeare's Works into German. Although very fairly executed, and favourably spoken of by Lessing, it did not give entire satisfaction to the literary, or even to the translator himself. The next edition was, at the request of the publishers, and by desire of Wieland himself, undertaken by Eschenburg.

Shakespeare Theatralische Werke. Herausgegeben von J. J. Eschenburg. Zurich, Orell, Füssli and Co., 1775-83, 8vo. 13 vols. (The 13th volume contains the Spurious Plays.)—Neue ganz umgearbeitete Ausgabe, mit kritischen anhängen versehen. Zurich, 1798-1806, 8vo. 13 vols. vignettes, 11. 10s., or without the vignettes and Critical Appendices, 11. 4s.

The Spurious Plays were not republished with this second edition, on which account the 13th volume of the previous edition is sometimes added.

To the above may be added, Eschenburg über Shakespeare's Leben und Schriften. Zurich, 1787, or 1804, 8vo.

These editions are piracies of the Zurich edition of 1775-83; in reprisal, it appears, for some trespasses of the like kind which had been committed by the Zurich firm of Orell, Füssli and Co. on the Mannheim publishers; arising from the want of a mutual copyright law between Germany and Switzerland. See Letter of Schwan (the Mannheim publisher) to Schiller; published in Schiller's Letters, Berlin, 1858. * This is apparently the earliest piece connected with the name of Shakespeare printed abroad. Eschenburg has quoted it, but intimates that it is neither a translation nor an adaptation from Shakespeare, although the writer may possibly have seen the English play. It is printed in 'Engelische Comedien und Tragedien,' 1630, small 8vo.; a rare volume (in the British Museum), on the title page of which it is stated that the plays had been acted by the English in Germany ('von den Engelländern in Deutschland.'). On this subject Mr. Thoms and Mr. Albert Cohn, of Berlin, have contributed some interesting papers in the Athenaeum for 1849, 1850, and 1851. This is a very loose and unsatisfactory translation. Some of the renderings of Shakespeare's idiomatic forms of expression are perfectly absurd.

— nouvelle édition, revue et corrigée, précédée de la vie de Shakespeare par Wordsworth. Paris, 1855, royal 8vo. 3 vols. 11. 10s.

This is not strictly a new edition, but merely a reprint from the old stereotype plates. The name of Wordsworth was erroneously substituted for Campbell, by the publisher.

Œuvres complètes, traduites par Benj. LAROCHE, avec une introduction sur le génie de l'auteur par M. ALEX. DUMAS. Paris, Marchant, 1834-39, royal 8vo. (double columns) 2 vols. — Reprinted, Paris, Dondey-Dupré, 1844, 2 vols. royal 8vo. — Third edition, Paris, 1841-43, 12mo. 7 vols. — Fourth edition, Paris, Charpentier, 1859, 12mo. 6 vols.

Voltaire was alarmed for what he considered the cause of the legitimate Drama, by the growing taste of his countrymen for Shakespeare. A German translation of this letter, with a preface by A. 'There is a want of moral and religious feeling in the book, but it is no ordinary work.'—Southey's Colloquies, vol. i. p. 320.

Considerable obscurity exists respecting this work, both as to the name of the author, and the language in which it first appeared. There is a long account of it in Marchand's Dict. Historique, under the name 'Allais,' as the author. See also Gent. Mag. N.S. vol. xxi. p. 355. Sir Walter Scott, in his Memoir of Swift, edit. 1834, 12mo. p. 304, says a third volume of Gulliver's Travels was published in 1727, by an unblushing forger, a great part of which was plundered from the Histoire des Sevarambes. See Notes and Queries, vol. 3, pp. 4, 72, 147, 374, respecting the authorship. In a letter of so early a date as 1728, written by W. Fortesque, the friend of Pope and Swift, he speaks of the work. The Countesse of Pembrokes Arcadia, written by Sir Philippe Sidnei. Lond. for W. Ponsombe, 1590, 4to. 'Imperfectly printed.' Reed, 2669, 3l. 11s. Heber, pt. iv. some leaves mended, '14l. 5s. Bright, in 1845, mor. by Lewis, 10l. 10s. Gardner, July, 1854, old morocco, 84l. On the reverse of folio 311 is a space for an Epitaph, which in Bright's copy was inserted in manuscript of the time. The variations between the quarto and the folio are innumerable, and not a few original poems are found here which were not reprinted when the Countess of Pembroke revised the whole, and re-plated it in a more convenient shape.

This gives the quarto a peculiar value. 'In this edition the work is divided by the Printer into Chapters, but they were not observed in the subsequent editions.'

Note in Heber's Cat. pt. iv. A curious and copious account of this romance is given in Zouch's Life of Sir P. Sidney, and a good analysis of the story is in Dunlop's History of Fiction. It was severely censured by Horace Walpole, afterwards Earl of Orford. The romance has been translated into Italian, French, German, and other languages.

At Mason's sale, Sotheby's, Jan. 20, 1807, was sold for 4l. 6s. the Countess of Pembroke's own copy, with the initials of her niece, the Countess of Montgomery, in the old morocco binding. WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY.

An entirely New Edition, thoroughly Revised, considerably Enlarged, and reset in New Type.

Medium 4to. 2118 pages, 3500 illustrations.

Prices: Cloth, £1 11s. 6d.; half-calf, £2 2s.; half-russia, £2 5s.; calf, £2 8s. Also in 2 vols. cloth, £1 14s.

In addition to the Dictionary of Words, with their pronunciation, etymology, alternative spellings, and various meanings, illustrated by quotations and numerous woodcuts, there are several valuable appendices, comprising a Pronouncing Gazetteer of the World; Vocabularies of Scripture, Greek, Latin, and English Proper Names; a Dictionary of the noted Names of Fiction; a Brief History of the English Language; a Dictionary of Foreign Quotations, Words, Phrases, Proverbs, &c.; a Biographical Dictionary with 10,000 Names, &c.

This last revision, comprising and superseding the issues of 1847, 1864, and 1880, is by far the most complete that the Work has undergone during the sixty-two years that it has been before the public. Every page has been treated as if the book were now published for the first time.

SOME PRESS OPINIONS ON THE NEW EDITION.

'We believe that, all things considered, this will be found to be the best existing English dictionary in one volume. We do not know of any work similar in size and price which can approach it in completeness of vocabulary, variety of information, and general usefulness.'—Guardian.

'The most comprehensive and the most useful of its kind.'—National Observer.

'A magnificent edition of Webster's immortal Dictionary.'—Daily Telegraph.

'A thoroughly practical and useful dictionary.'—Standard.

'A special feature of the present book is the lavish use of engravings, which at once illustrate the verbal explanations of technical and scientific terms, and permit them to remain readably brief. It may be enough to refer to the article on "Cross." By the use of the little numbered diagrams we are spared what would have become a treatise, and not a very clear one. . . . We recommend the new Webster to every man of business, every father of a family, every teacher, and almost every student—to everybody, in fact, who is likely to be posed at an unfamiliar or half-understood word or phrase.'—St. James's Gazette.
